

Marie E. Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Gould, Beatrice, and Willard Elmer Pearson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pearson Ceresco, exchanged wedding vows in a 4 p. m. double ring ceremony April 1 at the St. Paul Lutheran Church.

The Rev. Phillip Fry performed the candlelight rites before an altar banked with two large baskets and two altar bouquets of pink snapdragons, white stock and yellow jonquils, two altar candles and two seven branch candelabra. The pews were marked by lighted tapers and large white bows.

Bill Gilbert, music instructor at Louisville High School, Louisville presented the music. Lighting the tapers were Miss Rose Marie Pearson and Miss Mary Pearson.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of Schiffli embroidered silk organza and clear organza over taffeta in traditional white with pink embroidery. A bateau neckline and long fitted sleeves contoured the pink embroidered taut bodice. A wide mantling of the embroidery continued down the center front of the voluminous clear organza skirt and again at the center back tapering into an aisle wide cotillion train. A baronet crown of seed pearls resting on a pink bound banger held her elbow length double veil of imported bridal illusion. She carried a bouquet of pink roses on a white Bible.

Mrs. Phyllis Olson was matron of honor and Mrs. Carolyn Baldwin was bridesmatron. They wore identical frocks of yellow silk organza over taffeta fashioned with scoop necklines and smoothly fitted bodices. Matching headpieces of pink and yellow roses complimented their ensembles and they carried colonial bouquets of pink roses and yellow roses, respectively.

Attending the groom were John Szpontanski as best man and the bride's brother, David Gould II, as groomsman. Ushers were Joseph Weis and Jack Wyant.

Flower girl was Crystal Annette Olson and ring bearer was Cindy Sue Pearson. They wore matching silk organza dresses and floral head pieces.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Gould chose a dusty rose lace over taffeta dress with white accessories. Mrs. Pearson wore a Navy frock with pink accessories. Their
